From Ichaug the N. C. Daily News hears that all was quiet there, the magistrate keeping guard of soldiers round his gamen, perhaps as a protection against the designs of H.M.S. Ella. Sir Robert Hart's cruiser Lingjeng, with some half-dozen white men on board, was hourly expeeted. Meantime there had been no interruption of the school work or the services in the mission chapal in the city, which were being carried on by Mr. Cockburn's native converts. The work at the hospital and dispensary was necessarily stopped, owing to the enforced absence of Dr. Pirie. The same paper says everything was quiet at Caungking at latest dates, but it had been officially appounced that on their way to Changking.
